Meeting Minutes-Notes 3/26/2019

Meeting at Shula's Restaurant in South Miami, sponsored by Abbott Nutrition.

SEFANN members and guests enjoyed a delicious meal at Shula's with lively conversation and an engaging educational presentation provided by Abbott on Human Milk Oligosaccharides and the infant's developing immune system.

The leadership group focused on the event rather than the usual business meeting. This was our first time having a restaurant meeting rather than a hospital-based meeting. Our guests gave us positive feedback and asked to please be invited to our next restaurant meeting educational event.
